

Hello, I'm Justice Amoah

Operations Support Executive | Python Developer | Forensic Enthusiast

With a strong foundation in Business and IT, I specialize in Construction Supply Management, working with top brands like Sika, Weber & MC to deliver quality solutions in Waterproofing, Damp proofing, Building Finishing, Flooring and more.

Beyond construction, I'm passionate about data-driven decision-making—leveraging Excel and Python to streamline business operations and develop efficient systems. Constantly driven by curiosity and innovation, I'm committed to learning, optimizing processes, and contributing to the ever-evolving intersection of technology and construction.
